Schedule:

7:00 AM Doors Open and Registration, Visit Vendors, Continental Breakfast Served
8:00 AM Welcome – Wendy Dingus, President CCFDCA, Inc.
Key Note Speaker – Crystal Ey – “The Keys to Learning”
9:30 AM Session I – “Don’t Call Me Kid – Understanding the Generation Gap”, 2 COK hours in Community. Are Millennials really entitled? Why do Baby Boomers love committees? Come explore what influenced each generation during their critical years and how this shaped the characteristics we see today in general and in the workplace. Explore the Communication and professional development preferences of each generation and develop a plan of action for how to use this information to have more meaningful and productive relationships with everyone you work with, regardless of the age! Trainer – Lacey Tsonis
11:30 AM Lunch - Provided by Apple Spice Junction, Visit Vendors, Raffles, and 50/50.
1:00 PM Session II – “Developing Young Thinkers”, 3 COK hours in Curriculum. Teachers are to create opportunities for children to stimulate their curiosity and engage with children in ways that extend their learning and ability to think critically. During this workshop participants will examine how higher-level questioning and thought-provoking language can influence a child’s thinking ability and communication skills. By incorporating a variety of methods into teach-child interactions, lessons, and environment teachers can promote critical thinking, language development, and elicit more information about how children think as they engage in play. Trainer - Lauren Bond
4:00 PM Closing, Door Prizes, & Raffles

Vendors will be leaving at the start of Session II

The conference training certificate will be given at the end of the conference.
(Must be in attendance from 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM to receive a certificate)
